

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

This action is clearly illegal and deserves your attention. If the FCC allows corporate gorilla tactics in the public's political arena, then there is nothing that CEO/Board Members of these corporations won't do to project their PERSONAL OPINIONS on the public AS IF IT WERE NEWS.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
